RIVAL GOVERNORS OF NEW YORK

Impeachment Alleged to be Plot to Seize State Control.

REACHING A CRISIS.

Glynn's Formal Demand For Possession of Executive Office Refused by Sulzer.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 15.—Former demand was made today by Lieutenant Governor Glynn on Gov. William Sulzer for possession of the executive offices. In a letter setting forth that because of the impeachment proceedings instituted by the assembly, he and not Sulzer is now de facto head of the State government, Glynn asked for possession of the big offices on the east side of the capitol. The letter was framed by Edward Countryman and Patrick C. Dugan, attorneys for Glynn, and under an arrangement was delivered to Governor Sulzer at 11 o'clock. Sulzer refused to announce in advance what his action was to be. He stated that the demand would be passed upon by his own lawyers and the answer made in "due and proper time."

Today the capitol is stirred by the report that Mr. Sulzer and his friends were planning a most sensational vengeance on Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany leader, and several of his lieutenants who managed the fight in the assembly which led up to the impeachment vote. It was strongly intimated that Charles F. Murphy, Senator James J. Foley, from Murphy's district; Deputy Comptroller Michael Walsh, Senator James J. Frawley, head of the Frawley investigating committee, and Speaker Alfred E. Smith, of the assembly might be charged with treason as a result of the activities in which they engaged during the momentous night when the assembly was voting on the impeachment resolution. Evidence actually is being collected and precedents looked up.

It is learned from a reliable source that some of Mr. Sulzer's counsel already have been instructed to formulate the charges and collect evidence to indict and convict those of his opponents whom Mr. Sulzer held chiefly responsible for the humiliation that was heaped upon him through the action of the assembly in the early hours of Wednesday.

The Sulzer forces accuse the Tammany leaders mentioned as having acted as a board of strategy in directing the operations of Mr. Sulzer's enemies and working telephone lines in various directions with a view of bringing to bear upon members of the assembly the pressure of party bosses throughout the state.

If the necessary proof should be obtained the prosecution would be brought on the ground that the action in the assembly was part of a plot on the part of the leaders to seize control of the government of the state for Tammany Hall, and that to attain their ends they were bringing illegal pressure to bear on a grand jury. On the night the impeachment was found the assembly performed the function of a grand jury. In time of war treason is a capital offense.

MEETING OF ALDERMEN.

An adjourned meeting of the Board of Aldermen will be held at twelve o'clock tomorrow for the purpose of passing ordinances authorizing the improvement of certain squares in the northwestern section of the city. These ordinances were read twice at the regular meeting of the board last Tuesday night.

Hard and soft shell and deviled crabs and crab salad daily at the Rammel Cafe—Royal street.

The famous Burton Bros., who sell lots at the rate of one a minute and the "All Star" brass band of the Atlantic Coast Realty Company, will be at Mt. Ida next Monday morning when beautiful lots are to be auctioned off.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The romance of Marie Niehaus Driscoll, daghter of Charles Henry Niehaus, the famous sculptor, is shattered. She has started suit for divorce in White Plains, N. Y., against her husband, formerly the Rev. Father Denis J. Drscoll, who renounced the priesthood to marry her in December 1911.

Twelve hundred were killed in the fighting in Canton city, China, Wednesday. Pillage is in progrss everywhere. Half of the government troops have joined the rebels, and together they have looted the principal goldsmith and silversmith stores. Officials and army officers are powerless owing to dissensions among themselves. A huge fire broke out today, destroying 30 barracks, and as a result of the accompanying rioting the exodus of the civilian population continued without abatement.

Sanders Franklin and Henry Ralston, negroes, were taken from officers by a mob near Paul's Valley, Okla., late Wednesday. The negroes were on their way to trial at Pau's Valley. Franklin was charged with killing a white man after a dispute over the price of a watermelon and Ralston was accused of killing a white boy whom he found in his watermelon patch.

President Wilson last night publicly reprimanded Ambassador Henry Lane Willson for his recent attack on the British Foreign Office. Ambassador Page was instructed to express to Sir Edward Grey the regret of the American Government that a diplomatic official of the United States" should have been guilty of such an impropriety."

Four men were plunged to death yesterday at Memphis, Tenn., when a temporary structure on which they were working in repairing the Mississippi river bridge gave way and fell 100 feet.

Nine men were killed and one probably fatally injured late Wednesday night when a cable pin snapped at the Coronado mine, in Clifton, Ariz., and two ore cars carying 12 tons of ore and 13 miners dashed down a 38-degree grade for a distance of 3,300 feet.

Mrs. Mary Logan Tucker, widow of Captain Logan Tucker, the latter a grandson of the last male descendant of Gen. John A. Logan, died last night at the Brighton Hotel, Atlantic City. Mrs. Tucker was Miss Mary O. Keyworth, of Washington. She married Capt. Geo. C. Broome, U. S. A, but matrimonial differences ensued and a divorce followed. About seven years ago Mrs. Broome married Captain Tucker.

Mrs. Hilman Barrett, 72 years old, fell dead at Indianapolis, Ind., Wednesday night when she saw Charles Young kill her pet poodle dog. Mrs. Barrett was standing on the sidewalk in front of her home when Young passed and the little dog ran at him barking. He struck the animal with a heavy whip he was carrying. When the dog was found to have been killed Mrs. Barrett dropped to the ground and died instantly.

A beautiful white collie dog, a pet on Gen. Henry T. Lee's county place, 12 miles south of Columbia, Mo., saved the life of Elizabeth Ely, 11 years old, of St. Louis, yesterday. A violent windstorm overtook the child as she neared the bank of a stream and had blown her almost to its edge, when the dog seized her dress, braced himself firmly, and held on until help came.

Mrs. Robert L. Adams, aged 24, late Wednesdy night at her home, 10 miles east of Dallas, Texas, shot and killed her husband and her cousin, Miss Bertha Neese, aged 24, who was her guest, when she found them together in a room. The enraged woman, who had been away all day, first warned them she intended killing both, and then fired twice, the first bullet tearing through Adams' spine and the second piercing the girl's body. Adams was 43 years old and leaves two children. Although Mrs. Adams was formally arraigned on the charge of murder, she obtained bond in the sum of $1,000, and was immediately released. Scores of citizens at the preliminary hearing informed her they intended to get her a medal. She was cheered on leaving the court.

LOLA NORRIS IS AGAIN ON STAND

Calm and Collected During Cross-Questioning Ordeal.

IS AN IDEAL WITNESS.

Lays All Blame of Wayward Life Upon Caminetti—Court Will Adjorn Until Monday.

San Francisco, Aug. 15.—Lola Norris followed Marsha Warrington on the witness stand yesterday and repeated vitually unchanged, but in even stronger terms the story of infatuation, intimidation, and elopement from Sacramento to Reno, on which the government bases its prosecution of Maury I. Diggs and Drew Caminetti, under the Mann act. The trial of Caminetti will follow that of Diggs, now in progress.

During a ten-minute recess in the afternoon session, photographers and moving picture men invaded the courtroom, and there was a flurry among the principals in the case and the women spectators, all of whom covered their faces One photographer wasc arrested and fined $50. The court confiscated his negatives.

Earlier in the day the court commented sharply on the presence of women.

"I see some very young women in the rear of the courtroom," said the judge. "Are they accompanied by their mothers or chaperons?"

One of the girls spoke up and said they were.

"If that's the case," said the judge, "then the responsibility is on them and not on the court."

San Francisco, Aug. 15.—Lola Norris resumed the stand for cross-examination when today's session of the Diggs white slavery trial began in the Federal court.

Calm and collected and apparently determined to shun no exposure of her own actions in her effort to help the Government, she made an ideal witness for the prosecution.

On the stand under the direct examination of Special Prosecutor Roche, the girl sat with wide-open eyes, gazing fearlessly about the court and gave the fullest details of her trip to Reno as the companion of F. Drew Caminetti.

There was a hush in the court room when Roche asked her about the details of her life with Caminetti in Reno. She asserted that before she met him she was innocent.

When Miss Warrington was on the stand Diggs and Caminetti did not appear to be worried, but during the testimony of Miss Norris they visibly quailed.

Attorney Devlin for the defense began his cross-examination of Miss Norris a few moments before adjournment Thursday, and continued it this morning. The girl got no such severe, cross-examination as Miss Warrington, however. It was evident from the tenor of questions that Devlin had prepared to handle her gently.

Judge Van Fleet announced today that there would be no session of the trial tomorrow.

CHARGE AGAINST HORNING.

Washington Broker to Appear Before Comissioner Garnett.

The hearing of George D. Horning, a Washington Loan Broker who erected an office in Alexandria county at the south end of the Highway bridge, will come up before United States Commissioner R. P. W. Garnett in this city at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Horning is charged with placing dirt and filling in on a government reservation, his office having been built on the side of the government road with which the office had been connected by a platform, under permission of the Secretary of War. Since the platform was removed the space between the road and the office was filled in with dirt.

Crandall Mackey, of Alexandria county, represents the defendant and the government will be represented by either United States Attorney Groner, or his assistant, Mr. Smith.

ARRIVAL OF ENGINE.

Lawn Fete to be Held Next Month At Rosemont.

The new chemical engine purchased some time ago for use of the newly formed volunteer fire department of Rosemont has finally arrived and will be placed in comission in the new engine house recently constructed, on Mt. Vernon Avenue. This completes the fire equipment for Rosement and includes a hose cart with 400 feet of fire hose and two chemical hand fire extinguishers for emergency use.

It is expected that the lawn fete and test of the fire apparatus will be held at an early date this month, provided arrangements can be completed in time and the newly formed volunteer department can perfect its organization.

RESULTS OF A QUARREL.

Alleged Assault By Rev. W. T. Wine and Son Upon DeWitt Herndon.

DeWitt Herndon, of Fayman, Fairfax county, remained in a critical condition all last week as a result an attack made upon him by Rev. W. T. Wine and son, Charles Wine. It is alleged they attacked him last Thursday evening with a fence rail, rendering him unconscious from 8 o'clock at night until 3 the following morning. His worst injury was a wound on his forehead which extended across his head over one eye, and at one time it was thought that it would result very seriously. The cause of the assault was brought on by difficulties which arose over damages done to the corn crops of Herndon by cattle belonging to W. T. Wine, who owns a neighboring farm. It seems that several head of cattle got through a fence on the Herndon property and did considerable damage to the crop of corn. Mr. Herndon, it is reported, held the cattle until damages could be recovered from Mr. Wine, as the result of this the assault was made last Thursday evening by the two Wines. The matter was investigated and Wine is out under heavy bond to await trial.—Herald.

FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION.

Catholics Can Eat Meat Despite Fact That it is Friday.

Today is the Feast of the Assumption of the Blesed Virgin Mary, and is solemn holiday in the Catholic Church. Catholics all of the world will be permitted to eat flesh meat despite the fact that it is Friday. The permission to east flesh meat on Friday whenever a church holiday falls on that day, was granted by Pope Plus X, about two years ago, but this is only the second time since the order granting such permission was issued that Catholics have had an opportunity to avail themselves of the privilege.

Before Pope Pius granted the permission Catholics could eat meat only on Friday when Christmas fell on that day. Under the new ruling, however, Catholics can eat meat on Friday whenever any of the big church holidays fall on that day. Yesterday, however, the eve of the feast, was a day of fast and abstinence.

Services appropriate to the day were held in St. Mary's Church at 5:30 o'clock this morning.

The ladies are especially invited to attend the auction sale at Mt. Ida next Monday. Valuable presents given away. Fine music.

LARGE GATHERING IS DISAPPOINTED

Gaynor Will Not Attempt to Enforce 1 A. M. Closing.

CALLS OFF THE RAID.

Thirteen Policemen Engaged in Descent Upon Healy's Arrested by Brother Officers.

New York, Aug. 15.—Five thousand curious men and women who gathered around Healy's restaurant in Sixty-sixth stret, near Broadway, early today, to see another police raid, were disappointed, because Mayor Gaynor called off the policemen and issued a statement that, for the time being, there would be no further effort to enofrce the 1 a. m., closing execpt where liquor s served after that hour.

Gaynor's change of front first became known when Deputy Commissioner McKay announced at police headquarters that Healy's was not to be molested, and later, Inspector Dwyer, at liberty under $1,000 bond on charges of assault and malicious destruction, telephoned Thomas Healy that he might keep open as long as he pleased, so far as the police were concerned.

Satisfied wth his technical victory, Healy closed his place at 12:30 a. m., greatly to the dismay of the several hundred inside, and the thousands on the sidewalks.

Dwyer and thirteen of his policemen arrested by brother policemen, will be tried before Magistrate Deuel in the West Side Police Court, where Dwyer and his men appear almost daily to give testimony against persons they arrest.

The grand jury will next Tuesday begin an investigation of the Healy affair, and will call Dwyer, Captain Hart and Lieutenant Hayes to inquire of them by whom they were ordered to raid the restaurant on three consecutive nights.

In reply to Mayor Gaynor's long statement about the district attorney upholding lawbreakers in their resistance of the police, District Attorney Whitman said the mayor's attitude is ridicuulous, in view of the fact that the court of special sessions, as well as the police courts, have held that a restaurateur is not violating the law by serving food without liquor after 1 a. m.

BLEASE IGNORED AND ANGRY.

Declares Some of His Bitterst Enemies Have Been Appointed to Positions by Wilson.

Washington, Aug. 15.—Cole L. Blease, the South Carolina Governor, has passed Woodrow Wilson up. He announced it yesterday in a letter to Thomas J. Pence, of the Democratic Congressional campaign headquarters who sent out a circular letter to the various Democratic Governors asking them to help out. Most of them replied perfunctorily that they would.

Here is what Cole L. Blease wrote about Woodrow Wilson:

Dear Sir: Your letter of August 4 has been received. In reply I beg to state that the present Administration at Washington has been very painstaking and careful in absolutely ignoring the present Governor of South Carolina.

"No recommendation he has made has been given any consideration. He is proud, however, to state that he has asked no favors, either for himself or his friends.

"Some of his very bitterest enemies have been appointed to important positions and it has been publicly talked here that they were appointed for the purpose of discrediting Blease and trying to aid in his defeat for the United States Senate. Therefore, I must say that I am surprised at the receipt of your letter, in speaking of the election of United States Senators.

"However, I can assure you that, whatever may be the purpose of your committee and of the Administration in regard to taking part in these fights, I will be the next Senator from South Carolina unless God Almighty intervenes by destroying my health or my life, which I am earnestly praying to Him every day to strengthen instead of making weaker. Very respectfully,

"Cole L. Blease."

HEAT AND DROUGHT IN THREE STATES

Crops Ruined and People and Stock Suffer in The West.

TRYING CONDITIONS.

Water Famines Add to General Distress—No Rain Has Fallen in 45 Days.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 15—Kansas, Missouri, and Oklahoma are sweltering under the twelfth day of terrific heat, which has paralyzed late crops, caused water famines, and been responsible for extreme suffering among the people and live stock of the three states.

Local showers in Kansas failed to affect the general temperature, which again reached an average maximum above 100 degrees. In many places the mercury climbed to 108, and few stations reported temperatures lower than 100. A half inch rain fell in Topeka late yesterday, causing the temperature to drop 23 degrees in seventeen minutes, but an hour later the mercury had climbed up to the maximum of the day.

The shower was confined to a territory less than one mile square. People shouted and cheered as the drops began to fall and many of them deliberately stood for a few minutes in the downpour, as it was the first rain ther since July 23.

Late crops have been practically destroyed in parts of the state. Some farmers are cutting their corn in the hope of utilizng it for fodder, but in some instances the blades are so dry that it will not even make good feed.

In certain sections hay is being baled immediately after is it cut, as it is so dry the usual curing process is unnecessary.

Olathe, Medicine Lodge, Lawrence, and other Kansas towns, have exhausted their water supply. Olathe buys 60,000 gallons a day from this city, and Lawrence has turned the water of the Kansas river into the mains as protection against fire.

Cottonwood Falls, Kas., has not had rain in forty five days, and far more than thirty days since then the maximum temperature has been above 100 degrees.

Makes Another Flight.

In one of the longest aeroplane flights ever made in the vicinity of Washington, C. Murvin Wood late yesterday afternoon made a complete circle of the capital at an average altitude of more than a mile. He traveled about 30 miles in 26 minutes. He left the parade ground at Fort Meyer at 10 minutes to 6, arose to an altitude of 5,300 feet, flew down the river to Alexandria, turned and passed over Washington monument, and then by flying east and north until near College Park, made the circuit of the city before returning to Fort Myer.

There will be a number of changes and improvements made in the store and fixtures.

WATERMELON QUESTION

Dealers Must Pay Wharfage on Car goes to Lessee of Fish Wharf

During the past three years certain parties have at times been cited to appear before the Police Court to show cause why they should not be fined for refusing to land watermelons at Fishtown or refusing to pay wharfage on the same when carried to other wharves.

These cases have generally been settled by the accused agreeing to pay the lessee wharfage.

A special session of the Police Court was held late yesterday afternoon to investigate a case in which a dealer had refused to pay the assessment after having landed a cargo at a wharf between King and Prince streets.

The defendant stated that there were no accommodations at the city wharf and that having to pay wharfage at another point he objected to being assessed again by the lessee of the city property.

The latter stated that there was an abundance of room at the fish wharf, at least sixty feet of frontage, with roadways leading in and out.

The accused agreed to pay wharfage in future and he was dismissed. The court stated that no more compromises would be allowed, and that hereafter persons refusing to obey the law will be fined at the rate of two dollars for each hour the boat lies in any other dock.

An ordinance passed by the City Council about twenty years ago directs that all watermelons brought to this city, be landed at the corporation wharf where wharfage can be collected. Several years ago in a case before the Police Court it was decided that dealers could lend their fruit elsewhere provided they paid the wharfage to the lessee of the fish wharf, this ruling being satisfactory to the lessee.

ALEXANDRIANS MARRIED.

Edward L. Simpson And Ruth Virginia Bartlett the Happy Pair.

Leaving home shortly before 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon presumably on a shopping trip, Ruth Virginia Bartlett, sixteen years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Bartlett, of 410 Wilkes street, proceeded to Washington with Edward L. Simpson, of this city, and was married by Rev. H. Schroder. The couple afterward returned to this city.

Mrs. Bartlett, mother of the bride, two hours after her departure, became apprised of the proposed wedding, and an ineffectual effort was made to stop it.

Mrs. Bartlett alleges that her daughter will be sixteen years old next November. The license issued, however, showed her age to be nineteen, and that of the bridegroom was given as twenty.

EVADING MUZZLING LAW

Device, Exposed in Lynchburg, Being Practiced in Alexandria

Occasionally persons (generally of the African genus) are summoned to appear before the Police Court and show why they should not be fined for allowing unmuzzled dogs to run at large. An elderly colored woman was before the court this morning to answer the charge. Accompanying her was a large, good natured, worthless, chocolate-colored cur which ran to and fro with attempts to make friends with the court and all present. The old woman alleged that she had purchased a muzzle, but it had been broken and the dog gained the street through no fault of her own. She produced a license on the animal, and was profuse in promises that there would be no repetition of the offense. She was dismissed with the admonition that should the dog be found in the street minus a muzzle in the future the law would be enforced.

Dogs with their muzzles dangling about their necks are often seen in the city. There is a tale attached to this: it is to make it appear that the muzzle was adjusted properly, but that the animal pawed at it until it was brought under its throat. It seems that this trick has been imported from a sister Virginia city, as will be seen by the following from a Lynchburg paper:

"Some mighty amusing things are heard on the streets when an owner of a dog, who has failed to comply with the dog muzzling law, is accosted by a policeman for his negligence. They can put up some of the lamest excuses that have ever been heard, the most popular one being that the muzzle was removed to feed the dog, and judging from their talk the dogs must eat about twenty-four hours in a day.

One owner of a canine thought he would get by the ordinance by fastening the muzzle around the dog's neck, leaving the noose piece dangling under his chin, giving the impression that the dog had just pawed it lose. This trick wouldn't work for the police man saw through the ruse and after watching the dog for several days he summoned the owner before the mayor charged with violating the dog muzzling law ,and he was relieved of five perfectly good dollars. That dog is now wearing one of the biggest muzzles in Lynchburg.

Some of the residents seem to think that the dog muzzling law is just an idle whim and fail to see the seriousness of it, and the police are of the opinion that he only way to convert these people is to take a few greenbacks from them and are not hesitating about bringing them into court.

It should be unnecessary to state that the law requires dogs to be properly muzzled. A case was before the Alexandria Police Court a few days ago where a dog had bitten a child. The owner in his defense alleged that the dog was muzzled that is a leather device was used which allowed a free use of its jaws. The owner was told he could have the animal killed or pay five dollars fine. He agreed to turn the dog over to the police.

DEATH OF R. T. HEMPSTONE.

Retired Business Man Succumbs Near Leesburg, Va.

Leesburg, Va., Aug. 15.—Robert T. Hempstone, one of the founders of the firm of Rouse, Hempstone & Co, for many years one of Baltimore's best-known and most influential citizens, died shortly before midnight Wednesday at his country home, near this place.

Mr. Hempstone leaves two brothers and five sisters.

Several weeks ago he was operated on at the University Hospital at Georgetown for cancer of the stomach.

Mr. Hempstone was born in Loudoun county, where his father had a large and valuable plantation before the war. At the outbreak of the strife between the states young Hempstone, though but a boy, enlisted in the Army of the Confederacy and served with distinction throughout the conflict. At the close of the war when he returned to his home he found that the great plantation had been almost completely devastated. The former fertile fields had been swept clean by the opposing armies, fences had been torn down, others were in a state of decay and everything was practically ruined.

Thrown upon his own resources, he decided to come to Baltimore whereby his industry and ability he became a leading figure in commercial life.

DRIVES WITH DEAD MOTHER.

Dies in Arms of Son While Returning to Her Home.

Lynchburg, Va., Aug. 15.—Mrs. Mary Ann Preble, widow of James Preble, of this city, died suddenly Wednesday evening, while returning to her home in city from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. J. F. Mitchell, who lives in Campbell county. Mrs. Preble was being driven home by her son, R. A. Preble, when she complained of being ill. The son placed his arms around his mother and she died almost immediately. Then Mr. Preble drove five miles to his home here.

Mrs. Preble was sixty-nine years old.

Miss Margaret Eaton, of Philadelphia, lies seriously injured in the hospital at Lynton, Dovenshire, Eng., as the result of an automobile accident Wednesday, in which Wm. T. Anderson, Mrs. Andehson, and Miss Annie Eaton, all of Philadelphia, also were painfuly hurt. The party were the guests of Mr Elliott at Lynton. While descending a hill in a motor car the wheels skidded and the machine dashed through a wall. The car fell 50 feet to the valley below, throwing the ocupants out in its descent. Their fall was broken by trees and shrubs, or the accident probably would have been fatal to all.

TO CONDEMN LAND.

War Department Directs That Condemnation Proceedings be Instituted.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 15.—Announcement is made from Washington that the War Department had ordered that condemnation proceedings be instituted for the purpose of acquiring the site for the proposed fortifications at Cape Henry. It is understood from Congressman Holland and Senator Martin, the government will not be bound to purchase the property if the total amount after condemnation is not considered reasonable.

Just when the proceedings will be started is not known. It is said, however, that the government is anxious to start on this project soon and will hasten matters as much as possible.

STORM ON THE COAST.

Number of Schoners And Barges Anchor in Hampton Roads.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 15.—Continued winds from the east, northeast and southeast which have been blowing off the coast during the past few days have seriously interfered with the schooners and barges which ply along the coast transporting coal, lumber and other commodities.

A number of schooners and barges have been anchored in Hampton Roads for the past few days awaiting favorable weather to proceed to sea. several tugs have ventured out with their tows, but have been forced to return to the Roads for shelter.

The storm is the first of the present season to interfere with shipping along the coast.

NEGRO IS CAPTURED.

Was One of Three Who Did Shooting at Salem Church.

Howardsille, Va., Aug. 15.—Horace Mosley, one of the negroes responsible for the fatal shooting at a negro meeting at Salem church on Sunday of last week, was captured Monday by a constable in Albemarle county and has been placed in Buckingham county jail.

Canney Mosley, another of the negroes who shot Gabe Palmer, was himself shot three times and not twice as at first reported, and a colored woman named Lena Perkins was shot in addition to those mentioned in dispatches at the time of the shooting.

Negro Killed.

Danville, Va., Aug. 15.—Jeff Curry, a negro brick yard employe, was struck on the head with a brick hurled by Will McClellan yesterday morning and killed by the blow.

The two negroes became involved in an exchange of epithets, and McClellan, becoming angered, struck Curry on the head, crushing his skull.

McClellan fled, but was apprehended an hour later. He comes of a criminal family, one brother having been killed by a policeman a few years ago, while another is now in the penitentiary.

FARMERS' UNION.

Organization Selects Petersburg for Place of Annual Meeting.

Petersburg, Va., Aug. 15.—Because of the welcome given by Petersburg business interests to the locals of the Farmers' Educational and Co-Operative Union, the Virginia division of the Union will have its annual state convention in this city in February.

There will be in attendance from all parts of the state several hundred of the most progressive farmers in Virginia, who because of their strength in organization, are becoming a powerful factor. The farmers are getting into politics and this body which now numbers nearly 15,000, promises revolution in a number of the departments of State government.

The Farmers' Union in Virginia is trying to secure tax reform, the direct election of school trustees and the election of judges in the same manner that the Commonwealth's attorney's are elected. The picnics held in southside Virginia this summer have been succesful in interesting a large number of farmers not in the organization and as a result the union is growing rapidly. The speakers at these picnics, officers of the state division of the national union have shown the trend of the movement to be revolutionary.

NEW EDUCATIONAL FEATURE.

Work of Campbell County Schools Will be Enlarged.

Lynchburg, Va., Aug. 15.—The school trustees of Brookville district, Campbell county, are having preliminary sketches drawn for an addition to the West End School, by which the school will be given rooms for domestic science and manual training, as well as an assembly hall for the entire school.

It has been decided to provide for domestic science and manual training in ten of the schools of the county, this having followed an offer from the State Board of Education to provide the sum of $750 annually to be applied to the expense of such instruction.

The Truth About Electric Cooking

For large families where the average domestic help is employed and a large amount of cooking done, Electric Cooking will be found more expensive, and in most cases not advisable.

In small families, where no help is employed, and where nice equipment is desired, Electric cooking will be found many times more convenient, more certain in results and safer in operation—as well as reasonable in cost.

In every family a few utensils for early breakfast emergency and special uses—and for cheering up cold meals with a warm dish or two—is highly advisable from every standpoint, including that of economy.

TRIBULATIONS OF H. ST. GEORGE TUCKER.

The following interesting editorial by Col. A. B. Williams, the brilliant editor of the Roanoke Times, appeared in his paper a few days ago, and will be read with interest by the numerous friends of H. St. George Tucker, of Lexington:

"When it appeared Wednesday on the face of the returns and estimates that Mr. John Garland Pollard had been elected Attorney General of this state over Judge S. W. Williams by a plurality of from 3,000 to 5,000, there gushed and gurgled and bubbled forth from some of our journalistic fountains of beautiful purity and lovely slush an enthusiastic suggestion. It was that Hon. John Garland Pollard be the next governor of Virginia, to be elected in 1917. A few days before from the same sources of prismatic and sparkling purposes, we had the announcement that it was fairly well fixed up at the meeting of State Bar Association at Hot Springs that the Hon. Richard Evelyn Byrd is to be Governor. Now, we want to know what is to become of the Hon. Harry St. George Tucker.

"Mr. Tucker and Mr. Byrd in the last four years have been men of vicissitudes. Four years ago, it may be remembered, that Mr. Tucker was candidate for governor against the Hon. William Hodges Mann. Mr. Tucker did not quite square up to the requirements of the Anti-Saloon League, the Rev. James Cannon, and the other clergymen who undertake to manage for us our morals and our politics by mixing the two. Judge Mann seemed to suit these gentlemen better. Some arrangement was made. It was very mysterious and never has been explained. Somehow, the hated "Machine", the liquor interest and the Anti-Saloon League and political clergy were combined. Mr. John Garland Pollard, in a speech in Richmond last Monday night, described this transaction as the "dirtiest deal in the history of Virginia politics." This candid criticism was uttered at the close of the campaign, and after the letters from the Baptist ministers of Richmond cordially commending Mr. Pollard to the voters of the state had been sent abroad and presumably had done their intended work. Whether the authors of these calls to be unconverted would have changed their tune after Mr. Pollard's descriptive oratory there is no way of keeping and the detail really is unimportant. The next result of the arrangement of 1909 was the extraordinary spectacle of Rev. James Cannon and his co-laborers of the League, and the Baron Von Rosenegk, president of the Rosenegk Brewing Company of Richmond, and titular head of the liquor organization of the State, working together in sweet accord for Mann and against the double-crossed and much mistreated Tucker. To some of us the alliance did not seem exactly holy or natural. Therefore we lifted up our voices for Tucker, a square deal, and the cards on the table. This combination was too strong, however. It was preached and proclaimed from one end of the state to the other that Tucker was the sinner and the unclean thing, that the congregation of the saints must rally to Judge Mann. Mann was elected decisively and Mr. Tucker apparently went into political discord.

"But last year Mr. Tucker came to the front as one of the big chief representatives in Virginia of Woodrow Wilson and progressiveness. Immediately he was taken to the bosom of the noble army of martyrs. He was proclaimed as the prophet and exponent of all that was beautiful and righteous in political thought. Mr. Byrd, up to then, had been in a dubious position and a somewhat straddled situation. As author of the Byrd anti-liquor bill he was among the chosen and elect. As close companion and intimate part of the 'Machine' he stood among sinners and outcasts. When he joined Mr. Tucker as leader of the Wilson forces his conversion was regarded as complete and triumphant. He too, was accepted into full fellowship and the Richmond Times-Dispatch became a volcano of honied words whenever it had occasion to refer to him or mention his name. As we understood, Mr. Byrd was to be United States District Attorney the almoner of Federal patronage, the supreme judge of our court of political claims, to shoo away the goats who had voted and gone with Swanson and Martin, to feed succulent salaries and luscious offices to the sheep who had abandoned those leaders of iniquity. Mr. Tucker was to be governor, Senator, what not, provided he did not care for a cabinet place or an ambassadorship.

"Now, what has come to pass? Mr. Byrd seems to have become reconciled to the horrors of the "Machine" and has accepted a most comfortable and attractive clerkship under Senator Martin. We fear he may be counted as a backslider. The Times-Dispatch seems to handle him timorously and to withhold from him its saccharine outgushings, and within a week has thrust him aside as a gubernatorial suggestion and has taken up Mr. Pollard. This is as well as we can judge. Perusing this esteemed contemporary, we never quite know whether we are reading the profound deductions of high-browed and deep-thinking editor or the enthusiastic prattling of a youthful reporter. They seem to be distributed about equally and indiscriminately through the news and editorial columns. We read nothing, however, of Tucker. He told us on his retirement from candidacy for Governor against Henry C. Stuart that he felt he could work for the people—which people not clearly defined—and for some cause not particularly described—to more effect as a private in the ranks. It appears now that his companions and special friends are disposed to take him at his word and leave him in the ranks. We do not know why. He was among the first of the anti-machine leaders and victims. He is said to have done hard and conscientious work in behalf of the great Jones-Glass uprising of two years ago. Yet, apparently, he is thrust aside for the newest and most beautiful favorite, supposed to have achieved a throat latch success.

"Mr. Tucker does not deserve this. While we do not regard him as a skilled or practical stragetist or a very wise leader, it must be considered that he was one of the first to stand up and fight the so-called "Machine" and that he was a good, square, gentlemanlike combatant. If loyalty to Mr. Wilson is to be taken as a test, Mr. Tucker certainly was one of the foremost advocates of the present President, and strove faithfully to have the Virginia delegation sent unrestricted for him. Therefore we do not know why Mr. Tucker should be cast aside, along with Mr. Byrd, to give place to Mr. Pollard. Our only deduction from the circumstances is that the exponents and directors of the dissatisfied and restless element of the state are like so many magpies, eager to sieze on anything bright or new that may catch their wandering attention and unstable thought, regardless of whether it be diamond or glass, a bit of gold, a sparkling globule of quicksilver or a scrap of tin."

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work.

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

PLENTY OF VEGETABLES.

Home-Grown Watermelons Are Arriving—Good Peaches Scarce And High.

The market is now well supplied with ordinary vegetables. Fruits for canning, however, will not be low in price as the prices of last year. Some very good sugar corn is being received, which sells at 20 to 25 cents a dozen. Lima beans have gone up five cents a box. New beans are cheap and plentiful. Now is the time to buy them for canning. They bring 10 cents a quarter peck. Sweet potatoes sell for 25 cents a quarter peck, cheaper than last week. Some fine celery and eggplants are displayed. Watermelons grown hereabouts are being brought in and this has lowered prices, good small melons selling at 15 cents, while larger ones on ice bring from 20 to 40 cents each. Grapes, fine home-grown Concords, sell at 15 to 40 cents a basket and Delawares at 20 to 50 cents a basket. Peaches are now about as cheap as they will get this season, as the crop is very short. The juicy specimens sell at 50 cents a large basket. Smaller baskets bring from 15 to 45 cents.

Poultry is holding its own, chickens bringing 30 cents per pound. Fresh country eggs sell at 28 and 30 cents. Butter is firm at 35 cents for country and 40 cents for creamery.

The meat maret is in the same condition as last week, although some good beef roasts and stew meat are sold a little cheaper, because the demand seems to be for steaks and chops, consequently roasts may be secured at prices from 18 to 20 cents per pound, the best cuts at 20 to 30 cents. Veal roasts sell at 15 to 25 cents per pound. Smoked hams have gone up a few cents selling now as high as 20 to 24 cents a pound.

DOING THEIR DUTY.

Scores of Alexandria Readers Are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidney's duty. When they fail to do this the kidneys are weak.

Backache and other kidney ills may follow;

Help the kidneys do their work.

Use Doan's Kidney Pills, the tested kidney remedy.

Alexandria people endorse their work.

Mrs. J. B. Briscoe, 115 Prince St., Alexandria, Va., says: "A few years ago I allowed my name to be used publicly telling of the great amount of good Doan's Kidey Pills had done, and at this time my opinion of the remedy is not changed. I recommend it more strongly than before. My back was lame and sore and for five years, I just dreaded my house work on that account. After I took Doan's Kidney Pills, I felt a great deal better in every way."

If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Briscoe had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (17)

HOG KILLS CHILD.

Bites on Chin, Ear and Hand, Cause Fatal Lockjaw.

Lancaster, Pa., Aug. 15.—Ella Mary Eberle, only daughter of a well-known farmer, is dead from lockjaw, resulting from a terrible mutilation by a hog.

The child went into the poultry yard with corn for the chickens, some of which she gave to the hog. The quantity being small, angered the brute, which bumped over the girl, bit off one ear, part of her chin and all the fingers of one hand.

The child's screams were not at once heard by the mother, whose hearing is defective. She finally heard them, ran to the yard, drove the hog away and carried her daughter into the house.

A physician could do nothing for the child and she died in terrible agony.

Baltimore, Ag. 15.—Mrs. Francis M. Starr, of Norfolk, Va., was arrested early yesterday morning as she stepped from the gangplank of the Bay Line steamer Florida when it arrived from the Virginia city.
